

CREATIVE WRITING COMPETITION

FOR PRIMARY SCHOOL CHILDREN

The University of Essex's creative writing competition is back for another year! Open to all primary school aged children, we're looking for talented writers and illustrators to share their stories. This year's theme is... (drumroll please...)

'Out of this world...'

We're looking for well-written stories that take us to unexpected places. So make us laugh or cry; tell us a story that makes us want to know more.

Award Categories

Gold and Silver awards will be presented to each age category

- Reception and Key Stage 1
- Year 3 & 4
- Year 5 & 6

Other awards include;

- The Most Creative Character
- The Most Original Illustration
- The Most Imaginative Setting
- The Most Captivating Plot

The deadline for entries is Sunday 11 November 2018.

All participants are invited to attend a special celebration evening at the University of Essex with James Campbell on Tuesday 4 December 2018 at 6:30pm.
