Friday 26th February – Spring Term Issue 7

I am delighted to be writing this newsletter knowing that we will soon be fully open for ALL pupils. I am very excited and look forward to welcoming you all back on Monday 8th March. Thank you for all your support both at home and here in school – you have been extraordinary!

Obviously, we are still in the middle of a national lockdown and it is vital that we all continue to respect the safety guidelines. With this in mind, can I please remind you to wear face coverings on school grounds, respect the social distance rules and leave the site immediately after drop off and collection. The children will be in their usual classes and working as two bubbles (Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2).

Class	Drop off time	Pick up time	Collection Point
1	8.45 - 9	3.10	EYFS gate
2	8.45 - 9	3.10	Front Door
3	8.45 - 9	3.15	Side Gate
4	8.45 - 9	3.15	Side Gate

Breakfast and after school sports clubs will resume on Monday 8th March to support you with childcare. Please book these directly with Premier Sports.

On Friday 19th March, Mr Este and the teaching team are planning a D'Arcy School Book Day event here in school. Further details of the school event will be circulated in due course.

Wishing you all a relaxing weekend

Keep safe
