

CLUE 2 ANSWERS

✘ Clue 2 – Commas

- ✘ Ruth made a mental note of what she needed: trout, kippers, ice, lentils, leeks, eggs and tofu. Her son John, fed from lying in the sun, started to discuss his up-coming birthday.
- ✘ “What I really want is a new pet,” proclaimed the 10 year old.
- ✘ “Pets aren’t just for birthdays – they’re for life,” explained his mother.
- ✘ “You never buy me what I really want. Callum’s Mum is letting him choose from a list: crocodile, tarantula, iguana, snake, Alsatian or scorpion,” moaned John.
- ✘ His mother, alarmed at the thought of a dangerous pet, moved swiftly to dampen his enthusiasm.
- ✘ “Callum’s mother may be buying him one of those animals; nevertheless, my home is going to stay safe and clean!”
- ✘ “That’s not fair,” argued John, leaping up from the sofa.
