Friday 28th May – Summer Term Issue 6

Here we are at the end of another half term and I am so proud of all the progress the children have made. Whilst it has been an unsettling time, everyone has continued to pull together to support the children both academically and emotionally. Thank you for all your continued support in establishing routines and expectations for all.

On Monday, Mrs Whybrow and I welcomed the new EYFS parents to the school in preparation for starting school in September. It was wonderful to invite people into the school again and we look forward to welcoming the families into our school community.

This week we have been thinking about Pentecost and its significance in the Christian calendar. The children reflected on how something we cannot see can give us courage. Thank you to Reverend Sue Godsmark for leading us in our worship on Tuesday.

Over the last few days, Key Stage 2 have started to plan their summer show. I am pleased to confirm that the children will be performing 'Oliver'. We will announce further details regarding the performances in due course. It is likely to be an outdoor show to comply with changing regulations. Thank you to Miss Barber and all the staff for this exciting learning opportunity.

On Thursday, Mrs Whybrow launched a Science competition with the children. The children have been invited to enter this national designing competition. Please see the Class Blogs for full details. Good luck everyone – I look forward to seeing your designs.

On Thursday 3rd June, the PTFA are hosting an 'Around The World Landmark Hunt'. The event starts from The Queen's Head Pub, D'Arcy, and runs from 1pm until 3pm.

Please look out for your invitation via Parentmail to make an appointment to meet with the class teachers. These will be held during the school day. If you have any concerns, please contact the office.

Next week is half term. I hope you all have a wonderful week together and the sun shines for us all. I look forward to seeing the children back in school on Tuesday 8th June following the INSET day on Monday 7th June.

Wishing you all a relaxing weekend.
